

German-Podcast.de - 010 – Wegbeschreibung

Welcome to German-Podcast.de. The Podcast to learn German.

We are back to Hans and Julia. They are still in Hamburg, and are now visiting the town. As they both have not been there before, they need to consult a map and Julia needs to explain Hans how to get to the market place.

See <http://german-podcast.blogspot.com> for the corresponding Webpage.

H: Zum Marktplatz geht es dort entlang.          J: Nein, ich glaube wir müssen hier rechts abbiegen.          H: Rechts geht es zum Hafen, nicht zum Marktplatz, der ist im Zentrum.          J: Gib mir mal den Stadtplan.          H: Hier.          J: Siehst Du, wir sind hier, vor der Kirche.          H: Ja.          J: Und dort ist Süden.          H: Ja.          J: Links siehst Du die Reeperbahn.          H: Jaaa!          J: Konzentriere Dich! Also müssen wir hier rechts abbiegen.          H: Du hast wie immer recht.	H: That is the way to the marked place.          J: No, I believe we have to turn right here.            H: That is the way to the harbor, not to the marked place, that is in the center.          J: Give me the map.          H: Here.          J: See, we are here, in front of the church.          H: Yes.          J: And there is south.          H: Yes.          J: You can see the Reeperbahn on the left .          H: Yeah!          J: Concentrate! So we have to turn right here.            H: You are right as always.
Fischmarkt          Der Michel            Reeperbahn	Fish market          a famous church in Hamburg named after St. Michael.            red light district in Hamburg

The map is from www.map24.de, a very good site look for something, to print a map and find a hotel. I use it often when I travel to foreign cities.
